

INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA
IN THE CONTEXT OF INTERNET LABORATORIES
OF TRANSITION ECB COMMUNITY DANCE RESIDENCY

To attend the online Workshops of Transition ECB Community Dance Residency that will take place on 30.11. 2020, the team of organizers (from Kinitiras, the Goethe-Institut Athen and the Institut Français de Grèce) will be collecting as "responsible for processing" the information you provide to us, as described here, by filling out the entry form (basic identification information - "Data"), in compliance with the relevant applicable legislation and the decisions and guidelines of the competent supervisory authority.

We will process the Data, where required, so that you can attend and ask questions at the Workshop. The Workshops will be videotaped with the aim of making the relevant material accessible to the public in the context of promoting our activities and actions, through our means of choice such as through our websites, social media, print media, online media or even online platforms such as YouTube and for as long as we have that right by law. In addition to that, parts of the above recording will be used in the final product (short film) of the Residency. We will not disclose the details of the participants unless their names appear on the platform on their own initiative during the Workshop).

Once you select the relevant field in the form, we will be able to retain your contact details on the functionalities of our website (www.kinitiras.com). If you want to unsubscribe, you can do so by emailing secretary@kinitiras.com.

We will collect and retain your said data for the duration of the Residency and after its completion to fulfill the purpose for which the Data was provided and by complying with our contractual and legal obligations, taking into account the requirements of the according legislation and the limitation periods for the exercise of legal actions.

The exercise of your legal rights, in case this is desired by you, should be done in writing by sending the relevant request to the e-mail address secretary@kinitiras.com, in mention of the Kinitiras Secretariat and the Artistic Directorate of the Transition ECB Residency. In case you disagree with the response to your request and the processing of your data that we do in accordance with this, you have the right to address a request to the competent supervisory authority (Personal Data Protection Authority), which is addressed, within its competence, of the complaint documents according to the instructions contained on its website (www.dpa.gr).

The program is realized by:

With the support of:

In collaboration with:

With the kind support of:

